

Church Features Music Programs

The Vanguard Choir of Southern California College will be featured in the 10:45 a.m. service today at Bethesda Assembly of God Church, 1473 W. 182nd St. A vocal-instrumental group, the Vanguard, are directed by Joseph Prettyman, professor of music at the college. Southern California College is a fully accredited liberal arts college in Costa Mesa.

The Christ's Ambassadors, youth organization of the church, will be in charge of the evening services beginning at 7 p.m. Sunday. Annually, the group conducts an evening service featuring the activities of the organization.

"Run Away Generation," the latest film of Rev. David Wilkerson will be shown in the Tuesday night service at Bethesda Assembly beginning at 7:30 p.m. In the film an attempt is made to answer the question: Why do so many kids run away?

The picture is filmed in Haight-Ashbury and other hippie communities. There is an interview with hippie preachers who smoke marijuana to make Jesus more real and who study the Bible under the influence of LSD.

SHOWING the film will be Jerry Alcorn, associate evangelist of Rev. Wilkerson. Rev. Alcorn has ministered among the hippies and run-away kids, and will be giving first hand information of his experiences.

With him to present a musical program before the film will be his sisters, who with Jerry, form a trio. The Alcorn Singers have traveled in Europe and across the nation singing in rallies, crusades, and assisting the ministries of Teen Challenge.

Recreation Supervisor Appointed

Kathi O'Bitz, six-year employee for the City of Torrance Recreation Department as a part-time leader, is the newly appointed supervisor of girls' and women's sports. Harry B. Van Bellehem, director of recreation, made the announcement.

Assigned to the Parks and Playgrounds Division, Miss O'Bitz is responsible for coordinating and developing girls' and women's sports programs such as volleyball, softball, tennis, basketball, physical fitness, badminton, and golf.

Miss O'Bitz is a graduate of San Jose State College with a degree in recreation. She recently returned from several months on South Vietnam as a recreational program specialist for the International Recreation Association.

College Richer

El Camino College is more than $24,000 richer today, thanks to its employees. The college received a total of $14,134.77 in dividends from the State Compensation Insurance Fund because of the low accident rate among college employees.

RESUSCITATOR . . . Cub Scout Kent McCaman of Palos Verdes demonstrates "Bill Blow," newest form of rescue breathing apparatus, as he practices for Cub Pack 257's participation in the annual Scout-O-Rama to be held May 25 at El Camino College. Scouts in this area are now selling $1 tickets to the big show, sponsored by the Los Angeles Area Council, Boy Scouts of America.

College Journalists Return With Honors

El Camino College and a well-known car rental agency apparently have at least one thing in common for the time being — both are No. 2. Journalism students from El Camino College were runners-up in the large-college sweepstakes competition at the annual Journalism Association of Junior Colleges convention held at Palo Alto.

Chloe Capen, editor of the campus magazine, Warrior Life, placed first in on-the-spot feature writing, while Mark Einstein, editor of the college newspaper, War-whoop, received second place in on-the-spot editorial writing.

Delegation from more than 58 junior colleges from California attended the convention which featured workshops and seminars on current problems facing campus publications. In the mail-in contest, El Camino received a first place in editorial writing and second and third places in feature photography.

Students attending the convention included Miss Capen, Einstein, Margaret Matheson, Randy Rosch, Dennis Dockter, Gail Hershberger, Candy Barney, Mike Eggers, Robin Roy, and Metha Morrison. Faculty members Merrill Jones and Don Brown accompanied the group.

New City To Receive Traffic Light

Award of $7,738 contract to the Paul Gardner Corp. of Ontario by the Board of Supervisors for the installation of traffic control signals with highway safety lighting at Carson and Martin streets in the City of Carson has been announced by Supervisor Burton W. Chace.

He said that four bids were received from a high of $7,944 to the awarded low bid.

Construction will be in accordance with plans and specifications prepared by the County Road Department and the installation is slated for completion in July.

Lutheran Women Attend Church League Parley

The Southern California District of the Lutheran Women's Missionary League (LWML) closes its annual three-day convention today at the International Hotel. Mrs. Hobart Lias of 3831 W. 171st St. and Mrs. Ronnie Warner of 4240 W. 179th St., represented Ascension Lutheran Church.

The Lutheran Women's Missionary League (LWML) at Ascension has 100 active members. Twelve of them are singing in the LWML Chorus at the convention.

Others will be taking part in selective activities and panels as the convention proceeds.

"Serve the Lord with gladness" (Psalm 100:2) is the LWML motto. The objective of the LWML is to develop and maintain greater mission consciousness among the women of the Lutheran Church — Missouri Synod — through missionary education, missionary inspiration and missionary service. Also, mission projects are adopted and supported through prayers, co-operation and financial support.

The LWML at Ascension has an active Welfare Guild. The women make Easter baskets for retarded children at Columbia School and stuffed toys for children at Terra Belle. They collect and deliver clothing and food to the Lutheran Mission in Baja, California.

Baptists To Host Quartet

Sunday morning and evening services at the First Baptist Church of Waverly will feature the Rev. Acquistapace of Los Angeles Baptist College and the college male quartet.

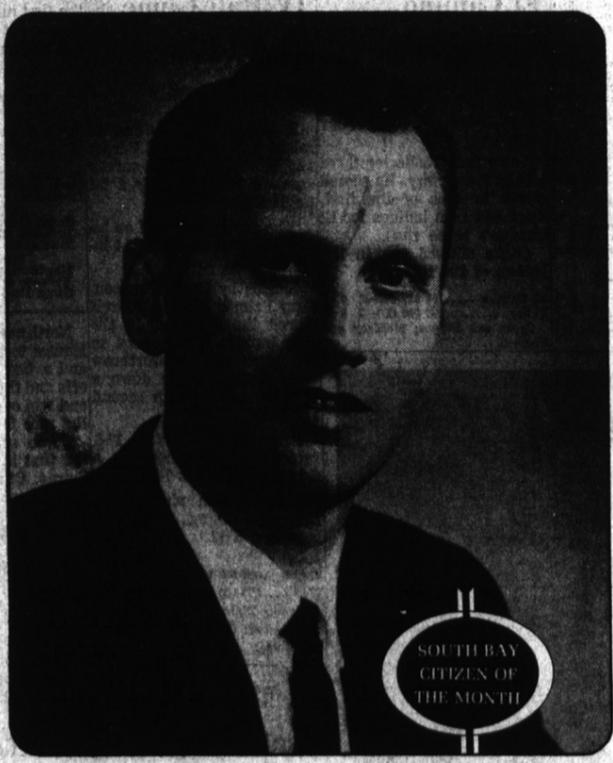

Pastor J. Benton Bell has accepted a call to the First Baptist Church of Costa. Filling the pulpit during May will be the Rev. John Penner, chaplain at Harbor General Hospital.

Leo Bouffard and Charles Vosper are refurbishing the church interior, assisted by Jerry Richards, Norman Goodrich, Steve Bell, and Mitchell Mary Ann, John, and Paul Vosper.

'May Fifth' Resolution Supported

A resolution by Senator Ralph C. Dills (D-Gardena) in recognition of Mexico's Cinco de Mayo (May 5) anniversary has been adopted by the State Senate.

The anniversary marks the day in 1862 when a force of 2,000 Mexican soldiers routed a French force of 6,000 at the battle of Guadalupe.

What special quality do those people have who act quickly and effectively in an emergency, while countless others stand helplessly by?

William Doucette probably couldn't answer that question, even though he is one of those people. A child is alive today because Doucette responded instantly to a call for help. Racing up a hill, he found a young boy buried from his head to his waist in sand, dug him out with his hands and performed mouth-to-mouth resuscitation until the child finally coughed, then took a breath. It is not so striking that William Doucette cares. We all care. But William Doucette acted — and that's the dividing line between a compassionate man and a committed one.
